The Bell Foundation EAL Summer School

Join us in Cambridge for a series of high quality, one-day EAL training courses.

All Bell Foundation courses are informed by the latest EAL and CPD research. They are designed to develop the skills, knowledge and confidence of school staff so they can provide more effective support for EAL learners.

Differentiation: Practical Classroom Support for Learners who use English as an Additional Language

This course includes new content for 2018

Tuesday 28 August 2018 10am–4pm

This course introduces practical strategies and resources which can be used by teachers to make sure that EAL learners are able to fully access the curriculum in their day-to-day lessons and achieve in school.

EAL Assessment: Working with The Bell Foundation's EAL Assessment Framework for Schools

Tuesday 28 August 2018 10am–4pm

This course introduces practitioners to The Bell Foundation EAL Assessment Framework for Schools and provides guidance on how it can be used to monitor progress, and to set learning targets.

EAL Co-ordinator Training: Embedding a Whole School Approach to Improving Outcomes for Learners with EAL

This course includes new content for 2018

Wednesday 29 August 2018 10am–4pm

This course aims to enhance the way EAL co-ordinators work with teachers and teaching assistants and considers ways in which EAL co-ordinators can embed a whole school approach to support EAL learners.

EAL Leadership: Prioritising EAL in Primary and Secondary Schools

This is a new course for 2018

Thursday 30 August 2018 10am–4pm

This course aims to raise the necessary awareness that school leaders need to drive evidence-informed, impactful EAL interventions in their schools.

Skills for EAL Teacher Educators: Train the Trainer

Friday 31 August 2018 10am–4pm

This course is for teacher educators who are seeking inspiring ways to facilitate effective, long-lasting and transferable teacher learning.
